Goals for the Season

MITs MITs MITs!!!

Let's get more active members! Get e-mails, phone numbers! Talk to family friends who have younger children! Focus on the younger teens ie: freshman & sophomores. Intrigue them with the idea of US being in charge of planning the events and fundraisers.

Follow through with the plans!!!

This term is all about communication! Talk to the N'siah and S'ganit about everything! When you're thinking of planning an event/fundraiser! What your game plan is (and you're back-up plan). Make sure times and location are clear to everyone! Contact me (Mazkirah) so I can communicate to all members (paying or nonpaying)

Shout-outs!

Keren Megory: You are amazing and I know that you are nervous about being Ahavah BBG 331's Fall/Winter 2011 Gizborit! You are doing a great job and we couldn't be more happy that you're in this chapter now. Just relax! Also, I'm so happy that you had such a good time at RLTC/Fall Con. We love you so much and you're doing such a great job!

Julia Bovarnick, Heather Greenstein, Ariel Amaru, Riki Gross, and Keren Megory: Ladies, I am so happy that you all went to RLTC/Fall Con. I heard it was amazing and I'm so sad that I couldn't make it because we all know that I would never intentionally want to miss a convention! They're so much fun! Way to represent 331!

When life gives you lemons make lemonade.

And when people try to cheer you up with half-assed clichés flick them in the nuts.

Living in a free country means people have the right to do things - even if they annoy you.

Like people who feed seagulls

Or people who feed whales.
